A great many curious and facetious things have been told of aeronauts, and their aerial carriages 'yelept balloons. A balloon making a descent on or near people who have never seen such a flying machine, unquestionably looks a leetle "super-natural-like," and, no doubt, makes their hair rise about as sudden as "bread stuffs" do semi occasionally.

The Pennsylvanians are great on ballooning, that State having produced about a baker's dozen of aerial experimentalists, whose performances have been attended by no disasters, some pecuniary advantage—to the ae-ronauts—and considerable addition to the general stock of useful science. Some years ago, a balloonist, named West, made several voyages to the upper regions from the town of Lancaster, Lancaster county, Pa. About the same period, a Dutch farmer from the interior of New York State, Dutch as sour krout took it into his head to pay a visit to some of his equally Dutch frents in the aforesaid Lancaster county. Nick Morgan was the old farmer's name—simple and honest he was as the day is long—with not ten consecutive ideas beyond the daily routine of his farm; a railroad and loco motive he had never seen, and as to the matter of balloons, they were altogether such contrivances as he had never dreamed nor heard of. Mounted upon his old sorrel mare, with a few edibles, and a clean shirt or two in his saddle bags, old Nick started on his tour to Pennsylvania.

The vrow had preceded old Nick some few days in his visit, and he bustled along to join her.

Jogging along quietly and unsuspecting, not far from his journey's end, the old farmer and the old mare were crawling up the slope of a little hill, when a voice bawl-

"Hurry on, old man! I want to pitch my grapnel into that hill side-hurry, hur-

The old sorrel pricked up her ears, and old Nick's eyes "pouched out" considerable, and he screwed and twisted them behind and before, right, left, and down below, yet nothing could he see, when still louder and more stentorian than before, came the same awful voice-

"Come, come, old codger; hang you, ride on ride on, I say, or I'll pitch square on to you ?"

The old man was bewildered, alarmed, horrified! He reigned up the old mare, and the poor old "critter," as terrified as her master, trembled like a leaf! Old Nick's eves fairly hung out in every direction but upwards-but not the first ghost of a thing could he see, save the hill on which he stood transfixed, and a few old stumps close

To these old stumps, West, the aeronaut —who was some hundreds of feet in the air, just over the Dutchman-wished to fasten his grappling iron and stop his bal-loon; as night was approaching, and no better spot could be easily found, there and then West was extremely anxious to alight. But the old fellow and his horse materially interfered with this arrangement. Time was everything just then; the eronaut did not wish to hook up the traveller, nor lose his balloon, so, getting vexed at the Dutch-man's delay, down West threw his grap-nel, attached to many fathons of strong clamped the back part of the saddle tight as wax! At this critical juncture, a puff of wind bounced the balloon or waits, and not the mare clean and clear off her hind legs, and but for the girth parting, the poor quadruped, Dutchman and all, might have been carried bodily off! The old mare turned up her eye just as the girth of the saddle broke, and, espying the great bal-loon over head, she bolted as if the verita-ble "old Nick" himself was after her!

Poor Nick Morgan! his coat tail came out by the roots, and he and the saddle were hitched and hauled forty rods down the hill, where, with all the breath knocked out of his body, the poor old man lay stretched out, like a spread eagle.

"There, you infernal old donkey, you." bawled the eronaut, ashe was sailing away, "there you are, cuss you-I knew it!"

Old Nick revived in time to hear this malediction, and get one glimpse of the flying machine, when up he bounced, and after his mare he went ten miles an hour!

On, on he splurged, until not two ounces of vital air filled his breathing apparatus: over the fence of his relative's grounds Nick flew, and up the lane he travelled, bustled into the house, foamed, fumed, and cut up such wondrous strange didoes, that his wife and friends believed he had gone stark

Exhausted quite, the poor old fellow threw himself down upon the bed, and to all the combined efforts of his friends, the tongue of Nick Morgan refused to operate and unravel the mystery. At length his vrow essayed-

"Nicholas, vat ish de matter mit vou? Umph, speak, and tell your vife vot der matter ish, umph?"

No reply, but turning his head over, and looking at his wife and friends with all the subdued tenderness of a dying calf, the old fellow offered up a heavy doleful grown. "Nicholas! mine tere hushbant, vat ish de matter, umph ?"

Another look, and another dreadful groan. "Nicholas, Nicholas, vy don't ye tell me vats de matter !"

The old man rose up a little, stared around caught hold of his wife's arm to satisfy himself that she was there, real flesh and blood, then, in a voice low and strong, betoken-ing the deep solemnity of his feelings, he "I've seen -seen -I-I've seen him!"

The friends all huddled around, the old erow leaned over the bed, and with a voice of extreme anxiety, asked

"Seen him?-who vos it vot you see'd?

"I-I've seen him. "Who ?" cried all the friends.

"Der divil?" echo the whole group of listeners. "Yeas! an oh! mine got, vot a pig pag he carries on his shoulters!"

PANACBA THE ONLY RADICAL CURE FOR CONSUMPTION!

In this medicine several impoent but very potent articles of the vegetable kingdom are united, forming a compound entirely different in its character and properties from any other preparation, and unrivalled in its operation on the system when laboring under disease. It should be in the hands of every person, who, by business, or general course of life, is predisposed to the very many alliments that render life a curse, instead of a blessing, and so often result in death.

Or. Drake's Paincen is recommended as a certain remedy.

Not one instance of its failure has ever occurred when freely used: It cures the disease and at the same time imparts vigor to the whole system. Sorofulous persons can never pay too much attention to the state of their blood. Its purification should be their first aim; for perseverance will accomplish a cure of EVEN HEREDITARY disease.

FOR ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN. Scurvy, Scothatic Affections, Tumors, White Swelling Erysipelas, Ulcers, Caneers, Raming Sores, Scale and Hiles, Dr. Drake's Panacea common be too highly extelled it searches out the very root of the disease, and permanent

INDIGESTION OR DYSPEPSIA.

No medicine perhaps has ever been discovered which gives so much tone to the stomach and causes the secretion of a healthy gastric juice to decompose the food as Dr. Drake's Panacea

RHUEMATISM

RHUEMATISM.

Dr. Drake's Pannoen is used with the greatest success in Rheumatic Complaints, especially such as chronic. It cures by driving out all impurities and foul humours which have accumulated in the system, which are the cause of Rheumatism, Gout, and Swellings of the joints. Other remedies a metimes give temporary relief; this entirely eradicates the disease from the system, even when the limbs and bones are dreagfully swollen.

CONSUMPTION.

CONSUMPTION.

Consumption can be curred.—Coughs, Cutarth, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Ashma, Difficult or profuse Expectoration, Hectic Flush, Night Sweats, Pain in the side &c. have been cured, and can be with as much certainty as any other disease. A specific has long been sought for, but in vain until the discovery of Dr. Drake's Panacea. It is mild and safe but certain and effications in its operation, and cannot possibly injure the most delicate constitution, we would carneally recommend those afficied to give it a trial—and we believe they will not have occasion to regret it. The system is cleaned and strengthened, the ulcers on the lungs are healed, and the patients gradually regain their usual health and strength. Read the following:

TESTIMONY.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to your question respecting the use of Dr. Drake's Panacea, I will say, that although a perfect disbeliever in the existence of a Panacea, or cure for ALL diseases, lewever valuable it may be in certain conditions of the system, still have believed that a care for Consumption would be discovered sooner or later, and curroutly led into to try your medicine in two very inveterate cases. They were pronounced by the attending physicians to be perlationary contains a six certain of several very able practitioners for a number of years, and they said she had "old finshined Consumption contains with Serofula," and that she might linger for some time but could not be permanently relieved. In both cases the effect of the Panacea has been most gratifying. Only four of five bottles were used by one of the persons before she began to improve rapidly. The other took about ten. I will only add that familiar as I am with consumption by inheritance and by extensive observations as a sindy, and knowing also the injurious effects in nine cases out of ten of tar, housset, and other vegetable tonics, as well as of many of the expect sunds and sodatives, I should never have recommended the use of Drake's Panacea if I had not been acquainted with the ingredients. Suffice it to say that these are recommended by our most popular and scientific physicians, and in their present combined state, form probably the best alterative that has ever been made. The cure is in necordance with a theory of Consumption broached in Varnese a few years ago, by one of the own even twice on medicine, and now established by facts which admit of no dispute.

TO THE LADIES.

Ladies of pale complexion and consumptive habits, and such as are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two, to bloom vigor. It is by far the best remeily ever discovered for weakly children, and such as have had humors; being pleasant, they take it. It immediately restores the appetite, strength and color.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame. Persons, all weakness and lastitude before taking it, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediate counteracts the nervelessness of the female frame. TO THE LADIES.

In presenting the pulsic with a remedy for the treatment and cure of FEYER AND AGUE and other bilious diseases, no apology is needed. Vast numbers in the United States, who suffer from these affectious in their varied forms, are compelled to seek relief from other sources than the immediate prescriptions of the regular physician. It becomes therefore an object of humanity, as well as of public interest, to bring before them a remedy prepared from much experience, and which may always be relied upon as SAFE, REFECTUAL, AND HARMLESS TO THE CONSTITUTION. That such is the true character of the INDIA CHOLAGOGUE, is amply attorated by the universal success with which it has been employed.

In the spring of 1845, I had an attack of Erysipelss in my face which became very painful, and extended into one of my eyes, being attended with fever, my distress was great and I began to be fear-Although not much of a believer in what is commonly called quack medicines. I purchased a box and made an application to my face. To my surprise the pain soon ab-ted, and in a week's time it was entirely cured, and I firmly believe that it was the salve, under Providence that cured me,

DR. SWEETSEL'S THIS Medicine is warranted, on eath, not to contain a particle of Galomet, Corrosive Sub-limate, Amenic, Chloride of Gold, or any deletelimete, Arsenic, Chloride of Gold, or any deleterous minerals.

The principle upon which this Medicine acts, is by assisting and harmonising with nature; it drives out all foul scrimonious humors from the blood and body, and by assimilating with and strengthening the gastric juice of the stomach, it assists digestion; in short there is not a vein, artery, muscle or nervs in the human body, that is not strengthened by the PANACEA, and it also possesses the remarkable property of removing mercury from the hones and joints.

FOR ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, Scurvy, Scorbuic Affections, Tumors, Scrofuls or Kings' Evi, White Swellings, Erysipelas, Ulcers, Cancers, Running Sores, Scabs and Biles, time and a determined perseverance in D. SWEET-SER'S PANACEA, will effect a cure.

Let not the patients frighten themselves with the idea that they are too week to take much medicine; but hear in mind that this mildly operanost certainly draws weakness out, leaves strength in its place, and by giving composed sleep at night, and an appetite to relish any food, re-animates the whole frame with vigorous action, clearing the mind and improving the sight.

CEA, which restores them to sound and proper action. Scroful-us persons can never pay too much attention to their blood, its purification should be their first thought, for after a long course of perseverance, they will ever cure hereditary disease.
